

'Why in the World Should Corporations Cooperate with the Government? What Every In-House Counsel Must Know,' International Bar Association

Event

November 19, 2020

Partner Christine Braamskamp, who will become Co-Chair of the International Bar Association's Criminal Law Committee effective January 1, will speak at the IBA Virtual Conference 2020 on Wednesday 25 November, on a panel with Astrid Mignon Colombet, Nicola Bonucci, Riccardo Lucev, Saverio Lembo, and Adriana de Buerba. The topic being discussed is 'Why in the World Should Corporations Cooperate with the Government? What Every In-House Counsel Must Know,' and it will cover the various (ethical) dilemmas that arise when considering whether to self-disclose and to cooperate with a government investigation.
