Event

November 25, 2020

On December 2, Partner Christine Braamskamp will interview Partner Andrew Weissmann, who served as a lead prosecutor in Robert Mueller's Special Counsel's Office and authored the recently released book Where Law Ends: Inside the Mueller Investigation. They will discuss what is next for a post-election United States, as well as what to expect in the US enforcement space going forward. Andrew will also offer unique insight on the investigation's history-making search for the truth, the team's painstaking challenges, and the unprecedented efforts by President Trump and Attorney General Barr to stifle their mission.
