

“Finite Disappointment, Infinite Hope: Race & Justice in McGirt v. Oklahoma,” Northwestern Pritzker School of Law

Event

January 21, 2021

On Friday, January 22, Partner Ian Heath Gershengorn will join a discussion sponsored by Northwestern Pritzker School of Law for its Dr. Martin Luther King Week programming. The conversation will focus on McGirt v. Oklahoma, which Ian argued at the US Supreme Court last year and won. With Elizabeth Reese from the University of Chicago Law School, Ian will share insights on the importance of the McGirt decision in reaffirming tribal treaty rights and tribal sovereignty across the nation. The program starts at noon CT and is available on Zoom.
