

“Investigations, Disclosures, Suspension and Debarment,” PubKGroup

Event

January 25, 2021

Jenner & Block Partner David B. Robbins [/people/DavidRobbins] joined a panel sponsored by PubKGroup, a comprehensive source for developments in law, cyber, and compliance for the government contracts community. The January 25 discussion was part of PubKGroup’s Annual Review 2021. Mr. Robbins, co-chair of Jenner & Block’s Government Contracts and Grants Practice, is an experienced litigator and investigations lawyer with a broad skillset focused on ethics, compliance, counseling, investigations and enforcement for government contractors, grant recipients, and regulated industries. He handles matters involving high-stakes, complex internal investigations, strategic transactions, mandatory disclosures, claims, trade secrets litigation, ethics/compliance, conflicts of interest, fraud and public corruption defense, bid protests, General Services Administration Schedule contracting, the Procurement Integrity Act, the Anti-Kickback Act, and suspension and debarment.

Related Attorneys

David Robbins

Partner

[drobbins@jenner.com](mailto:d Robbins@jenner.com)

+1 202 639 6040

Related Capabilities

Government Contractor Litigation and Compliance

Stay Informed

