

"Product Liability and the Pandemic: COVID-19 Impacts on Products Liability and Class Actions," ABA

Event

January 28, 2021

On January 28, Jenner & Block Partner Kate T. Spelman and Associate Julia Hirata spoke during the ABA's Environmental & Energy, Mass Torts, and Products Liability Litigation Committees' Joint Virtual Regional CLE Program. Their panel focused on immunity afforded under the PREP Act for certain COVID-related products, an overview of the current litigation landscape, and what damages could look like in those cases where immunity is not available.
