

“Developments in Criminal Law,” Federal Bar Association’s Indian Law Conference

Event

April 9, 2021

Jenner and Block Associate Krystalyn Kinsel participated in this panel. She and other speakers discussed recent developments in criminal jurisdiction in Indian Country, including the United States v. Cooley and Nobles v. State, and also highlighted implications for MMIP. Ms. Kinsel is a member of the Native American Law and Government Relations Practices. A member of the Navajo Nation, she focuses her practice on litigation and Native American affairs.

Related Attorneys

Krystalyn Kinsel

Special Counsel

kkinsel@jenner.com

+1 202 639 6062

Stay Informed

