Overview

Elizabeth Baldrige navigates all types of businesses through federal and state trial courts, appellate courts, mediation, and informal disputes. She represents clients in a broad variety of matters, with a focus on media, entertainment, and intellectual property. Elizabeth is experienced in all stages of litigation, including investigations and pre-litigation strategy, discovery, motion practice, trial, and early resolution.

Elizabeth is a member of the firm's Content, Media, and Entertainment Practice. She also represents clients in complex commercial cases, including business torts, banking and loan disputes, and breach of contract claims. She served as a federal law clerk in the United States District Court for the Central District of California. After clerking, Elizabeth began her legal career in the Los Angeles office of Jenner & Block from 2017 to 2018. She spent time in a small firm focusing on media and First Amendment work, and she rejoined Jenner & Block in 2021.
