Overview

Sol Gelsomino assists businesses across a number of industry sectors to manage complex commercial disputes. She has acted for clients in the energy and defence sectors, under the rules of major arbitral institutions. Sol has a particular interest in the defence industry and recently spent four months on a part-time secondment at a global aerospace and defense company. This enables her to bring an industry perspective to her practice.

In addition to her disputes work, Sol advises clients on UK and EU data protection matters. She works closely with clients to understand their current processes and facilitate compliance with current data protection laws.

Sol is passionate about pro bono work. She has assisted victims of domestic violence and successfully obtained non-molestation and occupation orders. Sol has also represented pro bono clients in challenging PIP decisions in the UK Social Entitlement Chamber. Prior to joining Jenner & Block, she trained at the London office of a US firm.
