Overview

Jacob Wentzel is a litigator who assists businesses with a wide array of high-stakes commercial disputes. He has particular experience in securities, antitrust, intellectual property, energy, and Delaware law matters. Jacob represents clients in any phase of litigation, and as a former law clerk for the United States Court of Appeals and the United States District Court, he brings valuable insight to trial- and appellate-level litigation. Jacob has helped clients achieve favorable outcomes in a variety of ways, from dispositive motion practice to zealous pretrial advocacy, as described further below.
