

Partner Ali Arain Honored among Crain's New York Business' Notable LGBTQ Leaders and Executives

Recognition

June 7, 2021

Jenner & Block Partner Ali M. Arain has been honored among Crain's New York Business' Notable LGBTQ Leaders and Executives. He is included as one of 58 business leaders in the legal, financial services, and non-profit sectors that play a vital role in New York City's economic and civic workings. Mr. Arain's profile highlights that he uses his deep litigation experience not only to represent high-profile clients of the firm, but also to give back to the community. The profile recognizes his pro bono work, including his role as lead counsel in a constitutional challenge to state reproductive rights laws and his work assisting victims of Superstorm Sandy, for which he received the Mayor's Award for Outstanding Contribution of Public Service. It also notes his leadership within Jenner & Block's COVID-19 Task Force, which supports clients as they navigate the pandemic.
