

OSHA's Updated COVID-19 Workplace Safety Guidance: Now Employers Have the Hard Part

Client Alerts

June 14, 2021

On June 10, 2021, the US Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) published its long-awaited response to President Biden's January 21, 2021 Executive Order to OSHA, which had directed the agency to consider and, if necessary, by March 15, 2021, issue an Emergency Temporary Standard (ETS) in response to workplace hazards from COVID-19. With the deadline long-passed, interest in OSHA's approach was heightened when the CDC, on May 13, 2021, issued its Interim Public Health Recommendations for Fully Vaccinated People (the "May 13 CDC Guidance"), and OSHA posted on its website that it was updating its guidance in response.

To read the full alert, please click here.

Law360 republished this alert.

Related Capabilities

ESG: Environmental, Social, and Governance

Related Locations

Chicago

615729. Information regarding the data we collect and the rights you have over your data can be found in our Privacy Notice. For further inquiries, please contact dataprotection@jenner.com.

Stay Informed

