

“Deep-Seabed Mining: The Next Frontier in International Investment Law,” Social License and Dispute Resolution in the Extractive Industries

Publications

July 7, 2021

In this chapter, Jenner & Block Associate Patricia Cruz Trabanino explains how international investment law and the concept of “social license to operate” interact in the context of deep-seabed mining. She identifies distinctive features of deep-seabed mining and analyzes how they might affect the application of international investment law to disputes that arise from the industry.

Related Capabilities

International Arbitration

Related Locations

Washington, DC

© 2026 Jenner & Block LLP. Attorney Advertising. Jenner & Block LLP is an Illinois Limited Liability Partnership including professional corporations. This publication, presentation, or event is not intended to provide legal advice but to provide information on legal matters and/or firm news of interest to our clients and colleagues. Readers or attendees should seek specific legal advice before taking any action with respect to matters mentioned in this publication or at this event. The attorney responsible for this communication is Brent E. Kidwell, Jenner & Block LLP, 353 N. Clark Street, Chicago, IL 60654-3456. Prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome. Jenner & Block London LLP, an affiliate of Jenner & Block LLP, is a limited liability partnership established under the laws of the State of Delaware, USA and is authorised and regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority with SRA number 615729. Information regarding the data we collect and the rights you have over your data can be found in our Privacy Notice. For further inquiries, please contact dataprotection@jenner.com.

Stay Informed

