

Partners David Singer and Kate Spelman Honored as “Legal Visionaries” by the Los Angeles Times

Recognition

August 31, 2021

Jenner & Block Partners David R. Singer and Kate T. Spelman are recognized in a special report as “Legal Visionaries” for their “contributions and leadership within their organizations, the legal field, and the community at large.”

Mr. Singer’s profile notes that he successfully defended claims in seminal litigation involving user-generated content and the Communications Decency Act and one of the first antitrust cases brought against a large social media network. The profile also highlights his vast experience providing production and distribution advice to major studios and television networks.

Ms. Spelman’s profile notes that she has “Big Law” and in-house experience defending some of the country’s largest food and beverage manufacturers from consumer class actions and other claims. The profile highlights her “deep understanding” of her clients’ unique business pressures, allowing her to craft strategies to overcome claims that threaten their businesses.
