

The National Law Journal Recognizes Partner Michelle McAtee as Real Estate/Construction Law Trailblazer

Recognition

September 10, 2021

Jenner & Block Partner Michelle M. McAtee, co-chair of the firm's Real Estate Practice, has been named as a trailblazer in Real Estate/Construction law among other "leading minds who will surely be recognized in years to come." In her profile, Ms. McAtee explains the career path that made her a trailblazer, noting her love for the tangible nature of real estate and the excitement of its progress. She then mentions her recent work focusing on construction and development projects: "From multi-family housing projects, to university developments, to state and federally funded mass transit projects." While she focuses on a plan to restore the country's infrastructure, Ms. McAtee notes the inevitability of exciting developments and opportunities for her clients, particularly those in the transportation sector.
