

Meet Our Former Government Officials

Publications

September 10, 2021

Representing companies from the largest defense contractors to small businesses and start-ups, Jenner & Block's Government Contracts and Grants Practice draws on our lawyers' wealth of government and litigation experience to help clients successfully avoid or resolve contract disputes with the US government. The team, which includes former government officials who have served in the Air Force General Counsel's office and Government Accountability Office and chaired the Civilian Board of Contract Appeals, understand the intricacies and practicalities of doing business with the government, as well as the real-world challenges clients face when those contracts break down and investigations are opened.
