

"Are Procurement-Related False Claims Act Investigations Unreasonably Burdensome?" The Government Contractor

Publications

September 22, 2021

Jenner & Block Partner David B. Robbins' article on recent False Claims Act trends was featured in the September issue of Thomson Reuters' The Government Contractor. In the piece, Mr. Robbins discusses developments that suggest the Department of Justice is going beyond what is reasonable when issuing Civil Investigative Demands and the impact this has on government contractors.
