

Jenner & Block Provides Investigation Report to the Chicago Blackhawks

News

October 26, 2021

Jenner & Block has provided to the Chicago Blackhawks its report following an independent investigation of the Blackhawks' response to allegations of sexual misconduct by a former coach. The investigation was led by Partner Reid J. Schar, co-chair of the firm's Litigation Department. A copy of the report is available here.

This report contains descriptions that are graphic in nature and language that at times may be offensive.
