

Client Alerts: Further Clarity on Liability of Local Representatives Under the UK GDPR Expected

Publications

January 11, 2022

Companies not established in the UK who process the personal data of UK-based individuals are required to appoint a representative in the UK pursuant to Article 27 of the UK GDPR. This requirement may become less practical (and more expensive), depending on the outcome of a UK Court of Appeal case between Baldo Sansó Rondón and LexisNexis Risk Solutions. The case will reportedly be heard in early 2022.
