

Anti-Corruption Enforcement 2021 Year in Review

Publications

January 19, 2022

Published annually by our Investigations, Compliance, and Defense team, the guide provides a comprehensive analysis of significant developments in anti-corruption laws and practice worldwide. It features a deep dive on recent trends (including visual summaries of key statistics), with subsequent chapters on US Department of Justice (DOJ) policy changes, an update on anti-money laundering, corporate criminal liability in the UK, and analysis of the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic and Brexit on anti-corruption enforcement, among many others.

Edited by Keisha Stanford, Lori B. Day, Katie B. Johnson, Kelly Hagedorn, and Tessa J.G. Roberts, and with contributions from 34 lawyers firmwide, the guide brings together perspectives from colleagues with a diverse range of backgrounds, including senior alumni of DOJ, the UK Serious Fraud Office (SFO), and the US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).
