

Crain's New York Business Names Partner Dawn Smalls among its “Notable Black Leaders”

Recognition

February 21, 2022

Jenner & Block Partner Dawn L. Smalls has been named one of Crain's New York Business' Notable Black Leaders, identifying “talented and accomplished Black individuals whose professional and communal achievements enhance New York City and the lives of its inhabitants.” Her profile focuses on her experience in government, politics, philanthropy, and law – advising clients on complex policy and regulatory matters. The profile highlights her role leading a team that won two temporary restraining orders against the City of New York in connection with the placement of homeless New Yorkers during the pandemic. Ms. Smalls also serves on the boards of the Roosevelt Institute think tank and Stone Barns Center for Food and Agriculture – a non-profit farm and educational center.
