

"Western Companies Pull Back from Russia in Response to Ukraine Invasion, Sanctions," Wall Street Journal

News

February 28, 2022

Partner Rachel Alpert spoke with the Wall Street Journal for an article about efforts by Western companies to curtail their operations with and within Russia and with sanctioned individuals. In the piece, Ms. Alpert outlined best practices for companies assessing their supply chains, including the need to check whether export controls used to curtail Russia's access to technology affect anything they bring into the country.
