

US Army Terminates Debarment of Efraim Diveroli

News

March 24, 2022

By: David Robbins, Sati Harutyunyan

Effective March 24, 2022, the US Army found that Efraim Diveroli had demonstrated his present responsibility and terminated his 15-year debarment early and within months of Jenner & Block appearing as counsel. Mr. Diveroli's debarment, which greatly exceeded the typical three years, included extra-regulatory, punitive procedural aspects such as requiring Mr. Diveroli to make an affirmative showing of responsibility in the last year of his debarment term.

The Jenner & Block team, Partner David B. Robbins and Associate Sati Harutyunyan, helped Mr. Diveroli emphasize his commitment to compliance, his deliberate use of quality counsel in his business dealings, and the remediation he engaged in for more than a decade. Our lawyers succeeded where other firms had told Mr. Diveroli that his goal was impossible to achieve.
