

"Contractor Vaccine Mandates: How We Got Here and What's Next?" National Contract Management Association

Event

January 28, 2022

Jenner & Block Associate Sati Harutyunyan will serve as the keynote speaker for the National Contract Management Association Los Angeles South Bay Chapter's New Year 2022 Hot Topic Training. During the presentation, Ms. Harutyunyan will discuss the latest developments regarding vaccine mandates and what we might expect with respect to the federal contractor mandate. The webinar will take place on February 8, 2022, from 5 pm to 6:30 pm PST. Ms. Harutyunyan is an associate in the firm's Los Angeles office. She represents individuals, international companies, and major defense contractors through all stages of civil litigation in California state courts and federal courts, litigation before the Boards of Contract Appeals, and private arbitration.
