

“Compliance and Monitorships,” Northwest Suburban Bar Association Federal Criminal Law Committee Meeting

Event

March 8, 2022

On March 22, 2022, Jenner & Block Partner Reid J. Schar will join a conversation about compliance and monitorships. The discussion will touch upon novel quantitative research. Mr. Schar is co-chair of the firm’s Litigation Department and managing partner of the San Francisco office. He leads internal investigations across a wide range of industries and has extensive experience handling compliance reviews around the globe. Recently, he was part of the team that was appointed to monitor the United Auto Workers Union in response to a government investigation involving high-level officials at the union. This program will be held from 12 pm to 1:15 pm Central. Please click here to learn more and register.
