

Carla Weiss Reviews DoD's Revised Rules for Contract Award Debriefings

Event

May 2, 2022

Special Counsel Carla Weiss discussed the Department of Defense's finalized rules for enhanced contract award debriefings in a recent episode of Federal Drive with Tom Temin. During the episode, Ms. Weiss outlined the most significant changes and what government contractors can expect. Listen to the episode here. Ms. Weiss is special counsel in Jenner & Block's Government Contracts and Grants Practice. She advises large and small clients in the defense, information technology, and professional services industries on a range of high-stakes government contract issues, including bid protests, claims, investigations, and compliance.

Related Capabilities

Government Contractor Litigation and Compliance

Stay Informed

