

“Exploring Calif. Wildfire Insurance's Legislative Landscape,” Law360

Publications

May 27, 2022

In an article for Law360, Partner Jan A. Larson and Associate Jenna L. Conwisar discuss the current legislative landscape concerning liability insurance coverage in California this wildfire season as the insurance industry faces off with state regulators over how to keep homeowners and businesses protected while keeping insurers financially viable. Mitigation efforts by homeowners and businesses to protect their property are becoming increasingly important, and there is a renewed push to ensure transparency in the residential and commercial property insurance market.

Ms. Larson is a Partner in the firm’s Insurance Recovery and Counseling Practice and the Complex Commercial Litigation Practice. She has extensive experience representing corporate policyholders nationwide in resolving complex disputes with their insurers involving a variety of insurance claims, with a particular focus on commercial property, cyber liability, representations and warranties, and professional liability (D&O, E&O and EPL).

Ms. Conwisar is an associate in the firm’s Litigation Department.
