

“Lawyer, Can You Spare a Dime? The Ethical and Legal Implications When a Lawyer Enters into a Business Transaction with a Client,” ALAS Loss Prevention Journal

Publications

July 21, 2022

In this article for ALAS, the Attorneys’ Liability Assurance Society, Jenner & Block Partner John R. Storino and Associate Christina T. Lopez address the rules of professional conduct implicated by common client business transactions and the malpractice risks associated with this business decision. Firms that allow such deals, the lawyers suggest, “should thoroughly consider the risks associated with doing so and establish clear policies and procedures to vet, monitor, and regulate such transactions.”
