

“How to Be—and Be Recognized as—a First Chair Trial Lawyer in a World of Implicit Bias,” American Bar Association Litigation Section Regional CLE Program

Event

July 15, 2022

Jenner & Block Partner Michael A. Doornweerd will speak at a CLE that is aimed at offering young, female lawyers practical tips on how to advance their careers. In his panel, he will share strategies that lawyers can use to develop into—and be recognized as—preeminent trial attorneys and trusted advisors. And he will discuss how lawyers can overcome the implicit biases that may stand in their way. This program will be held at Cozen O'Connor, 123 N Upper Wacker Drive in Chicago. Mr. Doornweerd's panel will be held at 9 am CT. Click here to learn more and register. Mr. Doornweerd is a co-chair of Jenner & Block's Litigation Department. With a focus on defense in the aerospace industry, he has litigated to verdict or final award over 24 trials and arbitrations.
