September 26, 2022

In a webinar hosted by the Media Law Resource Center's (MLRC) Internet & Technology Law Committee and co-chaired by Partner Alison I. Stein, Partner Shoba Pillay discussed the issues that media and technology companies are facing since the Supreme Court's decision to overturn Roe v. Wade in Dobbs V. Jackson Women's Health Organization including data privacy, aiding and abetting liability, and law enforcement and subpoena-related issues.

On the issue of aiding and abetting liability, Ms. Pillay said, "companies were almost in shock in thinking about how to deal with this issue." As for data privacy, she says, "data privacy concerns are really on our radar because we are in an age of data collection at an order of magnitude rate."
