

Jenner & Block Lawyers Secure Naturalization for Mongolian Client

News

November 1, 2022

A team of Jenner & Block lawyers secured naturalization for client Batsaikhan Badarch, whose case came to the firm from our partnership with the National Immigrant Justice Center. The team met with her on several occasions to fill out her N-400 application form and prep her for the interview and civics exam with the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services. Associate Jenna Conwisar took the lead in meetings to fill out her application, Staff Attorney Michael DeMar assisted with conducting a mock interview by playing the role of the USCIS officer, Associate Miguel Suarez Medina accompanied the client to her interview with the USCIS officer, and Partner Howard Symons supervised the team. This is a great example of cross office collaboration.
