

Supreme Court Hears Case on Native Americans and Adoption, Gray TV

News

December 2, 2022

Senior Associate Lenny Powell spoke with Gray TV about Haaland v. Brackeen, a case before the US Supreme Court. The case revolves around the Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA), a federal law that ensures Native American children can stay within their tribal communities and is the “gold standard” of child welfare laws. In the segment, Lenny explains the importance of the case for Indian Country.

The Jenner & Block team representing tribes in the case includes Partners Ian Heath Gershengorn and Ambassador Keith Harper and Associates Lenny Powell, Illyana Green, Victoria Hall-Palerm, and Allison Tjemsland.
