

Associate Amit Patel Named to Lawyers of Color's 2022 Hot List

Recognition

January 3, 2023

Lawyers of Color named Associate Amit Patel to their 2022 Hot List. The annual list recognizes early- to mid-career lawyers with noteworthy accomplishments and dedication to diversity pipeline initiatives.

Amit is a litigation associate specializing in disputes where complex technical concepts and intellectual property are at the core. Clients ranging from consumer electronics manufacturers to international law firms rely on Amit's experience and expertise to navigate through a variety of legal issues, whether they involve alleged infringement of hardware or software patents, class actions alleging violation of privacy laws, suspected theft of confidential business information, or allegations of professional negligence and misconduct.

Pro bono work is a substantial part of Amit's practice and includes representation of transgender individuals in name change proceedings, and representation of prisoners and juvenile detainees suffering civil rights violations.
