Overview

Eden Mandrell leads partner and senior lawyer recruiting at Jenner & Block, focusing on identifying and attracting exceptional legal talent at the partner, special counsel, of counsel, and other senior levels. Working closely with firm leadership, she oversees the full lifecycle of hiring to ensure new lawyers align with the firm's mission, values, and strategic priorities. Eden also supports onboarding and integration efforts to facilitate seamless transitions for new hires.

Before joining Jenner & Block, Eden was a partner at a national legal search firm. She also served as assistant dean of career development at a law school.
