

"Silences in the Storm: Testimonial Privileges in Matrimonial Disputes," Family Law Quarterly American Bar Association, Family Law Section

Publications

1987

In this article, Of Counsel Jim Feldman presents an overview of the scattered and often inconsistent law of testimonial privileges in the context of marital disputes. He focuses on some of the most commonly encountered privileges, such as attorney-client privilege, as well as some of the less familiar privileges, such as parent-child and accountant-client privilege.

© 2026 Jenner & Block LLP. Attorney Advertising. Jenner & Block LLP is an Illinois Limited Liability Partnership including professional corporations. This publication, presentation, or event is not intended to provide legal advice but to provide information on legal matters and/or firm news of interest to our clients and colleagues. Readers or attendees should seek specific legal advice before taking any action with respect to matters mentioned in this publication or at this event. The attorney responsible for this communication is Brent E. Kidwell, Jenner & Block LLP, 353 N. Clark Street, Chicago, IL 60654-3456. Prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome. Jenner & Block London LLP, an affiliate of Jenner & Block LLP, is a limited liability partnership established under the laws of the State of Delaware, USA and is authorised and regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority with SRA number 615729. Information regarding the data we collect and the rights you have over your data can be found in our Privacy Notice. For further inquiries, please contact dataprotection@jenner.com.

Stay Informed

