

“2023 CPR Annual Meeting,” International Institute for Conflict Prevention & Resolution

Event

March 1, 2023

Speakers: Todd C. Toral, Shoba Pillay, Peter Rosenbaum

Three Jenner & Block partners will share their insights at the annual meeting of International Institute for Conflict Prevention & Resolution. The event offers a deep dive into alternative dispute resolution tools, techniques, and best practices. On March 1, Partner Todd C. Toral will moderate, and Partner Shoba Pillay will speak at a panel called “Blame the Victim?” This discussion will explore the implications of a cybersecurity incident, including how to meaningfully prepare for litigation, manage insurance coverage, and pursue resolution via mediation. On March 3, Partner Peter Rosenbaum will serve on a panel called “Mitigating Risk in Life Sciences Licensing Transactions.” He and the other panelists will examine the provisions in a typical life sciences licensing transaction to clarify the purpose and considerations for deploying the provisions in an effort to optimize the value of the transaction and avoid disputes. The annual meeting will be held in New Orleans, LA. Click here to learn more.
