Overview

Jon Lampton assists clients with government investigations. He plays a key role in many aspects of the e-discovery process. Prior to joining Jenner & Block, Jon assisted the US government in matters involving civil rights, healthcare, and finance.

Jon received the Excellence in Justice Award for his efforts to help uncover fraud by a major international bank, the result of which was the largest penalty imposed by the Justice Department for financial misconduct to a single entity under the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989. Jon remains actively involved in pro bono matters. While in law school, he volunteered at the Law Office of the Cook County Public Defender.
