

Three Jenner & Block Lawyers Receive the National Center for American Indian Enterprise Development's 40 under 40 Award

Recognition

March 22, 2023

The National Center for American Indian Enterprise Development named Special Counsel Craig Williams (Mississippi Choctaw) and Senior Associates Lenny Powell (Hopland Band of Pomo Indians) and Krystalyn Kinsel (Navajo) among their 2023 class of Native American 40 Under 40 award recipients. The recipients “represent the best and brightest emerging Indian Country leaders” and are recognized for leadership, initiative, and dedication to their communities.

“The 2023 Native American 40 Under 40 awardees showcase the hard work, perseverance, and dedication that have come to define this prestigious award,” said Chris James, President and CEO of The National Center, in a press release. “This year’s class includes leaders in a variety of fields from across the country, showcasing the depth and breadth of the current generation of Native leaders. They are truly making a difference in every aspect of American life.”
