

32nd Annual IBA Communications and Competition Law Conference

Event

April 18, 2023

Speakers: Sam Feder

Partner Sam Feder will serve as moderator on the panel, “The new frontiers of telecommunications, antitrust and data regulation – is there a Universal Metaverse Competition Authority consumers can turn to?”, at the 32nd Annual International Bar Association Communications and Competition Law Conference in Rome. The panel will look at the interplay between telecoms, antitrust and data rules in the newly emerging worlds of the metaverse, “internet of things” and artificial intelligence. Sam serves as a Co-Chair of the firm’s Government Strategy Department and its Communications, Internet, and Technology Practice. Learn more about the conference here.
