

“The Choice of Seat of Arbitration: Can London Defend its Crown?” The Lawyer

Publications

May 19, 2023

With competition heating up, what can London do to maintain its pre-eminence as a top seat for international arbitration?

This is the question Special Counsel Ronan O’Reilly discusses in his latest article for The Lawyer as part of the celebration of London International Disputes Week. The author explores the changing nature of disputes and how prepared we are to resolve them.
