

Government Contracts Legal Round-Up | Episode 36

Podcasts

June 22, 2023
By: David Robbins

In this episode, Partner David Robbins highlights the Supreme Court's recent, unanimous opinion in the SuperValue case, which held that the False Claims Act's scienter element may take into account a defendant's knowledge and subjective beliefs. David also covers the new FAR rule that prohibits contractors from using TikTok on certain IT products. Last, David discusses the Federal Circuit's useful reminder of the de novo standard of review that applies to appeals of the Contract Disputes Act.
