Partner Gabi Gillett is featured on an episode of The Long-Short, a podcast produced by the Alternative Investment Management Association. The Long-Short examines topics of interest across the alternative investment universe with news, views, and analysis delivered by AIMA's global team and industry leaders. Called "The Most Important Court Case You've Never Heard Of," Gabi's episode sheds light on what AIMA calls the SEC's under-the-radar effort to bring enforcement actions in court to "redefine the nearly century-old definition of a securities dealer" under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Gabi also discusses AIMA's strategic initiative to use amicus briefs opposing the SEC in various cases across the country to resist the Commission's attempt to widen the scope of the Exchange Act.

In addition to Gabi, Partners Tony Barkow and Charles Riely, Associates Kelsey Stimple and Grace Signorelli-Cassady, and Paralegal Mary Frances Patston have supported AIMA's efforts.
