

Partner Gabriel Gillett Speaks to Forbes about the SEC's Attempts to Widen Its Regulatory Reach

News

July 12, 2023

Jenner & Block Partner Gabi Gillett is quoted in a Forbes article that examines recent cases in which, according to Forbes, the SEC is trying to “widen its regulatory reach” to require traders, investors, and “just about anyone making a dime in almost any market” to register as dealers and disgorge past profits from buying and selling securities. Gabi and a team have written amicus briefs on behalf of trade groups and interested parties supporting defendants in these cases. He explained to Forbes that “[i]f the problem is the definition of a dealer,” the SEC should “ask Congress to change it” or revise its regulations through a proper rulemaking rather than bringing enforcement actions.
