Jenner & Block Partner David Singer was recognized by the Los Angeles Business Journal's on its list of Leaders of Influence: Litigators & Trial Attorneys. Selection to the list honors the “very best litigators and trial attorneys of the region.” These are the “trusted advisors you want in your corner in court.”

David’s profile highlights his “record of success in high-profile, complex litigation in the dynamic media space and other industries” including his work representing Paramount Pictures, MTV, and the producers of the film Jackass Forever in a highly publicized lawsuit brought by actor Bam Margera. David and a Jenner team filed an anti-SLAPP motion and the court struck Margera’s claims for injunctive relief, paving the way for the release of the film and an out of court settlement. His profile also highlights his work securing a motion to dismiss a claim that “Fox improperly based its show Empire on the memoir of a woman who alleged similarities between the works.”
