

Co-Managing Partner Katya Jestin Selected as a Finalist for AmLaw's Mentor Award

Recognition

July 25, 2023

Co-Managing Partner Katya Jestin is a finalist for AmLaw's Best Mentor: Law Firm Award, part of its annual industry awards. As she told AmLaw, her secret to a productive mentor-mentee relationship is forming personal relationships as much as professional ones: taking a genuine interest in her colleagues' lives, sharing experiences, and finding common ground. Katya instills in her mentees the values of kindness and grit, in all circumstances. For the former, she believes it is imperative to treat everyone with kindness. As to the latter, Katya believes that true grit lies in always working hard and promoting teamwork. "I have a very low tolerance for 'individualism,'" she explains. "Credit is infinite."

The winners will be announced November 15 at The American Lawyer's annual gala at Cipriani's in New York City. View the announcement article here.

The firm has a proud tradition of placing in these awards, with Partner Coral Negron named a finalist last year.
