Overview

Noelle Dupuis loves working on the discovery phase of Jenner & Block’s wide variety of litigation matters, bringing years of experience in reviewing and organizing documented evidence to assist many teams in their zealous representation of our clients. She has identified crucial evidence in numerous different types of matters, including contractual disputes, consumer class actions, and criminal investigations.

Noelle’s passion for pro bono work is what first attracted her to Jenner & Block. Having started her legal career as the Public Policy Director of a non-profit organization by representing the interests of domestic violence survivors in the state and federal legislatures, she has a particular enthusiasm for the firm’s noted culture of giving back to its community.
