

“New AI Lending Tech Could Exacerbate Old Bias Risks,” Law360

News

August 18, 2023

In an article for Law360, Partner Kali Bracey and Associate Grace Wallack share insight into how federal government agencies, state attorneys general and private plaintiffs are increasingly focused on preventing bias and discrimination in credit decision making in the wake of the expanded use of artificial intelligence and machine learning.

The authors also discuss the joint statement from the Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the Civil Rights Division of the U.S. Department of Justice on countering bias and discrimination in automated systems and AI.
