Publications

September 2023

By: Steven Siros, Arie T. Feltman-Frank, Daniel L. Robertson

In this article, Partner Steve Siros, Special Counsel Tanja Vujic, and Associates Arie Feltman-Frank and Daniel Robertson explain how embracing environmental justice and community stakeholder concerns can benefit both corporations and communities. The authors highlight current developments, from the Environmental Protection Agency’s recent policies to environmental justice-related legislation in states and communities around the United States. They offer best practices and recommendations for corporations to consider for achieving environmental goals, building community relationships, and creating long-term value.
