Recognition

August 31, 2023

The National Law Journal has once again recognized Jenner & Block for our advocacy at appellate courts nationwide. As the firm's Appellate Hot List nomination explained, our team has played major roles in US Supreme Court cases, set new precedents in federal appeals, and secured victories in state appellate courts through the past year. We successfully advocated for a range of clients, from Native American tribes in Haaland v. Brackeen to North Carolina voters in Moore v. Harper to Marriott in Peter Maldini v. Marriott International Inc. These cases and more were among the landmark matters that we won, confirming our core values of delivering excellence to clients, diversity, equity, and inclusion, and pro bono service. Jenner's renowned practice is led by Partner Ian Heath Gershengorn, a former US Acting Solicitor General, and Partners Jessie Amunson, Mike Brody, and Matt Hellman.
