News

September 15, 2023

On September 15, 2008, global financial services firm, Lehman Brothers, filed for a record-setting bankruptcy which acted as the catalyst for the greatest economic crisis since the Great Depression of 1929.

As the court-appointed examiner, Partner Tony Valukas and a Jenner & Block team produced a 2,200-page report that, to this day, is considered to be the definitive account of what led to the bank's historic collapse.

For the anniversary, Tony sat down with the Re-Examination podcast to discuss his work and how he and his team told the story of Lehman's failure.
