

“Reciprocity between Jurisdictions: Are We There Yet?” The Oath

Publications

September 22, 2023

In collaboration with KBH, Jenner & Block's partners Christian Tuddenham, Wade Thomson, and Charles Riely, alongside associates Karam Jardaneh and Alyssa Bernstein, discuss the trend towards reciprocity in the enforcement of UAE, English, and US judgments and in the article "Reciprocity between Jurisdictions: Are We There Yet?" for The Oath.

Given the increasing number of companies with assets and operations spanning the UAE, England, and the US, the ability to enforce judgments and awards across these jurisdictions has never been more important. In this article, the authors review the current law relating to the enforcement of overseas judgments and awards in the UAE, as well as the enforcement of UAE judgments and awards in the UK and US. Enforcement reciprocity between the UAE and England is increasing but real challenges remain with respect to the enforcement of UAE judgments in the US and the enforcement of US judgments in the UAE. The article provides practical insights on the legislative and jurisprudential developments in this area.
